

Errata

“The Tale of a Butterfly: A History of the Global Development of Camps and the International Camping Fellowship, 1988-2013”

By Armand Ball

With Richard Chamberlain and Linda Grier Pulliam

- Page 8: Paragraph 5: The Ontario Camping Association, according to the history on its website, was established in 1932.
- Page 11 Line 5: Krasnodarsky Kray (Orlyonok).
- Page 20: Picture of group: Russian camp directors and counselors
- Page 29 Paragraph 3: Jack Pearse and Camp Tawingo made a grant to provide attendees financial assistance with their air fares.
- Page 34 Paragraph 2: Russia with 103,000 camps
- Page 35: “For the Children”: Move second stanza, as shown, to the last stanza.
Correct the third stanza to read as follows:
Now is the time and this is the place
And we are the folks who believe it
Let’s give and forgive as long as we live
We know that we all can achieve it
For the children we’ll sing
To the children we’ll bring
A challenge to show us the way
Let’s open our eyes
For our Destiny lies through the children.
We’ll reach a new day.
- Page 37 Picture of children: Caption - Yunga Camp, Novorossiysk, Russia
- Page 40: Paragraph 5: 500 Russian campers
Paragraph 8: In September, Jack Pearse, Jane McCutcheon and John Jorgenson (Canada) visited Australia to work with camp groups in Queensland, South Australia, and Victoria.
- Page 42: Paragraph 1: Delete
- Page 43 Paragraph 5: Ljudmila Marinticheva was named Executive Director
- Page 53: Paragraph 3: ...bused to the Peterhof
- Page 65: Paragraph 1: Include Russia as a country represented at the Congress
- Page 76: Paragraph 3: Add Fahrettin Gozet to list of persons in working group.
- Page 83: Paragraph 5: Three International Camp Director Courses were held in 2011. Add A Course was held in Ontario, Canada, for 19 participants, led by Jane McCutcheon and Jen Dundas.

- Page 91: Paragraph 3: Title of the workshop series was Health of the National Camping Association (Samara).
Paragraph 5: Valery Kostin, ICF President
Paragraph 6: Fahrettin Gozet went to Sochi and five other Russian cities.
- Page 93: Bullet 5: A professional education program for directors would be in place with 24 trainers in 18 countries.
- Page 104: Paragraph 2: Correct spelling of Druzhba
- Page 108: Paragraph 3: Add "In 2011, ICDC was held in Ontario, Canada for 19 participants. The faculty were Jane McCutcheon and Jen Dundas."
- Page 109: Paragraph 5: Change 14 Courses to 15 Courses
- Page 112: 1988-1994 Steering Committee: Added in Boston, 1990, Valery Kostin (USSR - 1990-91; Russia-CIS - 1992 on)
- Page 115 2011-2014 Board: Remove USA from behind Valery Kostin's name
.
.
.